

Alexis Stefano
MULTIDISCIPLINARY ARTIST
DESIGNER • ILLUSTRATOR

BIO

Born in 1994 in Boston, MA, Alexis Stefano is a self-taught, fine artist. Her multi-disciplinary creative practice combines watercolor, dry media, and cut paper elements— drawing inspiration from the White Mountains where she lives and works immersed in the natural world. Stefano's work explores ideas of migration, homecoming, intuition, and memory and conveys her curiosity and wonder for nature.

EDUCATION

- 2021 Massachusetts College of Art and Design • Boston, MA
Coursework, Graphic Design Certificate Program
- 2017 Northeastern University • Boston, MA
Bachelor of Science, Behavioral Neuroscience
Minor, Visual Arts
- 2015 Burren College of Art • Ballyvaughan, Ireland
Summer Study Abroad

JURIED GROUP EXHIBITIONS

- 2024 Fledgling: Artists Under 30
Robert Lincoln Levy Gallery, Portsmouth, NH
New Hampshire Art Association
- 2023 Tuckerman Ravine Show
The Three Sisters Gallery, Gorham, NH

AWARDS

- 2023 Honorable Mention
Art in the Park, North Conway, NH
Mt. Washington Valley Arts Association

GALLERIES

- Jackson Art Studio & Gallery
Jackson, NH
- Mt. Washington Valley Arts Association
North Conway, NH
- The Three Sisters Gallery
Gorham, NH